The College Leuven

The Irish College Leuven offers international six-month placement scholarships in hospitality at its heritage campus in Belgium. This is a unique opportunity to gain experience in different areas within the hospitality industry at high-level conferences and events and providing quality accommodation for our guests. Successful applicants will work in supporting the work of our clients at their conferences, meetings and events and delivering a quality hospitality experience for guests from all over the globe.

The best student city!

The City of Leuven is home to one of Europe's foremost universities, KU Leuven. With over 55,000 students living and studying in Leuven, the city is a hot spot for student life. There are weekly activities, sports, concerts and culture for young people and the city's Oude Markt square is central to student social life. No need to worry about learning Dutch everyone in Leuven speaks English. The best way to experience Leuven is to live it!
